“Plainview is going to be impacted by this global pandemic, it is important that we help our neighbors, friends and those who live in our community,” says Mark Warren, Plainview Area Endowment Chair.

Applications are available online at the Plainview Area United Way website (www.plainviewareaunitedway.org) and the Plainview Area Endowment website (www.plainviewareaendowment.org). Please click on the “Plainview Disaster Relief Fund Application” link and complete the application online. Applications will be forwarded to the Disaster Relief Fund Committee for review.

The committee is also requesting donations from the community for the Fund. The following banks will begin accepting donations on behalf of the Fund on Tuesday, April 7th: Happy State Bank, Prosperity Bank, Vista Bank and Centennial Bank. All donations need to be made in the name of the Plainview Disaster Relief Fund.

“If you are able to contribute to the fund to help our community, we would encourage you to do so,” says Brandon Ahrens, President of the Plainview Area United Way. “The money will remain local and help our fellow citizens.”
